BOIKANYO MASILO

JUNIOR WEB DEVELOPER

INTRODUCTION

Hi there! I'm Boikanyo and I love coding. I am a believer in life-long learning and as such I am always looking for opportunities to up-skill myself.
I am a Junior Developer with a curious mind and a thirst for knowledge, this has led me to platforms like Mongodb University, Google Africa Scholarship, Free Code Camp and self-learning.
I am currently learning to ask questions that make me look stupid but learn more.
